NOTES REGARDING URINE TEST:

I want initial test directly observed ☐ NO ☐ YES (note: if donor gives us a specimen that we won't accept then the 2nd collection will be observed)
WE CLOSE AT 5PM, IF THE COLLECTION PROCEEDS AFTER WE CLOSE DUE TO SHY BLADDER AND/OR OTHER EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES WE CHARGE $75/HOUR (1 hour minimum). STANDARD DRUG TESTING PROTOCOL DICTATES DONORS HAVE UP TO 3 HOURS TO PRODUCE A SPECIMEN BEFORE BEING DISMISSED. PLEASE INDICATE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

☐ IF UNABLE TO PRODUCE A SPECIMEN OR ONE THE COLLECTOR WILL ACCEPT, DISMISS DONOR, I WILL NOT PAY AFTER HOURS FEES☐ I APPROVE CHARGING MY CARD $75/HOUR FOR UP TO 3 HOURS IF NECESSARYNOTES REGARDING NAIL TESTING: Nail specimens are much more likely to be rejected by the lab for the following reasons:

- a. Insufficient quantity of nail- The test requires clippings from all 10 fingers or all 10 toes, the clippings should be about the width of the edge of a quarter, or greater if more than a 10 panel. Many times, it is near impossible to collect enough nail especially if the nails are short or the donor bites their nails, or it is more than a 10-panel test. If these conditions exist, we encourage you to consider hair testing instead. If we perform a nail test and not all drugs can be tested (they test until they run out of nail) due to insufficient quantity of nail there is no refund.
- b. Contamination from polishers, hardeners, etc. Nails must be completely free of all foreign substances to be suitable for testing.

If, in our opinion, nail testing is likely to produce a quantity not sufficient result, can hair testing be performed instead? ☐ NO ☐ YES _____ panel test

EtG/EtS
Urine	$80	3 days
Blood Spot	$275	20 days
Hair	$275	3 months
Nail	$275	3 months

Alcohol testing information: Breath alcohol testing detects alcohol in the body for up to approximately 8 hours depending on how much alcohol is consumed. Breath alcohol tests should be administered as soon as possible because alcohol leaves the breath at a rapid rate. Please arrange a ride for anyone who may be under the influence of alcohol and do not let them drive.

EtG/EtS tests are administered to clients who should abstain from alcohol completely because alcohol is a legal substance. There is no way to determine EXACTLY how much or when alcohol was consumed based on the results of an EtG/EtS test
